Hugh Nichol wins Express Open at Pinestone

HALIBURTON — Hugh Nichol (left) of Haliburton took full advantage of the beautiful weather last Sunday at Pinestone Inn and Country Club, to post a fine 73 in the 4th annual Highlands Express Open golf tournament. The win was the second in three years for Hugh and sets up a super match next year between himself and two-time winner Ken Rosenberg for the rubber. However, they will both have to watch for Leigh Bull of Minden (right), this year's low net winner. Leigh net a tournament record of 33 on the back nine to finish three strokes behind Nichol.

Barry Moore, internationally-known Canadian Evangelist, has been invited to conduct a crusade for Christ in this area by a number of local churches.

Moore will speak concerning contemporary issues troubling our society. It is his conviction that the Bible holds the answer for many of the problems which are facing modern man. He says, "I try to take the teachings of Jesus Christ and put them in a contemporary fabric so that they become meaningful to the people of today, be they young or old."

His attempt to do this has taken Moore to appearances on radio and TV, to service clubs, military

Of such gatherings Moore comments, "I simply try to present an alternative life-style to what we're being offered. After all, what's so wrong with honesty; what's wrong with integrity; what's wrong with sobriety; what's wrong with morality?"

A former teacher, Moore left the teaching profession in the early '60's to found Crusade Evangelism International (CEI). From its headquarters in London, Ontario, Moore and his associates have conducted over 500 crusades within North America and around the world since that time. Crusades in the Caribbean, India, South East Asia, Sri Lanka, Japan, Europe and the British Isles have gained Moore and his organization an international reputation among church leaders of all denominations.

Duck season opens Sat., Sept. 29

The migratory bird hunting season for ducks opens in Haliburton County on Sept. 29th, and closes December 16th. Goose hunting seasons open Oct. 15th and closes November 11th. Bag and possession limits on ducks has been increased to six.

All hunters require migratory bird hunting permits sold for $3.50 at the post office.

The Canadian Wildlife Service is asking hunters to keep careful records of their daily bag on the card attached to the permit. This information will help hunters complete the harvest survey questionnaire which some will receive later this year.

In 1978 the survey indicated that 151,500 licensed Ontario hunters bagged 943,200 ducks and 64,000 geese.

Letters to the Editor:

Supports police officers stand: Concert . . . no.

I hope this letter is just one of many that appear in your paper. There should be tremendous support expressed for the stand taken by the police officer concerning rock concerts. If there isn't I will be disappointed in the citizens of Haliburton County. I realize that the intention behind the promotion of these events is to boost the local economy. The organizing group deserves credit for working to support the county. We need more involvement, but adults must have the wisdom to see the unfortunate side effects of such events. This is especially important since there is a committee exploring a variety of proposals to develop industry within the county. We must have strength to say no as well as yes! Our counties survival and the future of our young people depend on it.

The police of our county care about us and our fine youth. Teachers, coaches, parents, friends and relatives must care about the youth as well. It is time to take a close look at a number of activities we take for granted.

Stopping rock concerts alone will not solve the problem because they are not the problem. They are just a reflection of what we as adults have closed our eyes to. We have allowed the "do your own thing" philosophy to go too far. We must put concern for others back into practice. It is good to see some of the straight jacket morals disappear but total freedom is not the answer. There is no one answer for every situation but there should be a balance point between personal expression and concern for others.

As adults we have an obligation to our fine young people to be sure that the examples set in sports, movies, television, parties, schools, churches and in the home show the young people how to get along personally and how to develop into a world of caring concerned people. The world of today is far from perfect, we must work together with the young people to build a better one.

of wheat sales because Canada can't fulfill its delivery commitments. The country's trading partners limit orders because they know we can't deliver.

While proposed new port facilities on the West Coast may alleviate part of the problem, Western farmers — through the Canadian Wheat Board — have been forced to spend millions of dollars on rail cars in an attempt to upgrade the system.

The situation is little different in Atlantic Canada, Quebec and Ontario.

The railway companies continually seem to be switching rail freight to trucks as a matter of policy, meanwhile cutting back service. Rail freight rates are also extremely high compared to those in the U.S.

A Nova Scotia businessman, for example, claims it is much cheaper to truck his product 400 miles to the U.S. border and use the American rail system for a Chicago shipment, rather than give the business to the Canadian railways.

For small business people, even finding the best freight rate creates havoc, given the anomalies and sometimes contradictory pricing policies built into the complicated system.

As far as rail passenger service is concerned, forget it. Aside from CN's much ballyhooed Montreal-Toronto Turbo train, the railways just aren't interested.

What's amazing is that all this is happening at a time when energy prices are rocketing.

Instead of creating roadblocks for potential customers, Canada's railways should move into the 20th century, using their energy-efficient equipment to provide the upgraded kind of service the country so badly needs. Who knows, they might even find it profitable.

Transportation System Still in a Mess

By W. Roger Worth

Several years ago, former federal Transportation Minister Jean Marchand bluntly summed up the state of Canada's transportation system: "It's in a mess."

Nothing much has changed in the intervening period. Canada's transportation system is still in a mess.

Just ask wheat farmers what they think of the rail-port system that carries their product to international markets. The

Canadian Comment

BY PETER WARD

OTTAWA (SF) - Prime Minister Joe Clark knows very little about Canadian defence policy. I suppose it's fair to say that very few cabinet ministers in governments over the past 15 years have known much about defence policy, so Clark is no exception.

The only definitive statement on defence that Clark has made came during the election campaign when the PM-to-be delivered a speech in Victoria promising that Canada would honor the pledge of the Trudeau government to NATO — to increase the defence budget by 3 per cent annually, to at least partially offset the tremendous amount of defence spending by the Soviet Union and Warsaw Pact nations.

Word is that new Defence Minister Allan McKinnon wrote that speech for Joe Clark and that McKinnon is making sure that copies of it are widely distributed, to remind Joe Clark of his defence promises. Fine, but that doesn't mean the Armed Forces are home free. Debate in recent weeks around the cabinet tables has centered on the promises in that speech.

In 1977 the defence budget had $25 million cut, money that was earmarked for new jet fighters, but the project was not advanced enough for the spending. In 1978 there was another $60 million lopped off for the same reason. Those were both supposed to be cuts which would be restored once the fighter program was in gear. Then last August, when former

Blue Cross Coverage Opens To Individuals

Ontario Blue Cross announced today that persons wishing to obtain non-group "pay-direct" coverage through the Semi-Private Hospital Accommodation and/or Extended Health Care Plans may apply during the month of September.

Blue Cross opens its non-group Plans only once each year, for new members seeking coverage for such benefits as use of semi-private and private accommodation in hospital, prescription drugs and private duty nursing.

"Although the major function of Blue Cross has increasingly become the development and sale of employee health benefit programs to companies and groups," said its chief operating officer Brian Mead, "we still respect the traditional role of Blue Cross to make health coverage available to Cambodian or Khmer, the official language of Cambodia, contains the world's largest alphabet with 74 letters.

Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau began swishing about with his belated economy ax, there was another $150 million taken out of the defence budget.

The question is, does the Clark government figure the promised 3 per cent annual escalation in defence spending based on a budget before those cuts? Or does the cabinet begin its annual 3 per cent increases based on a budget after those cuts?

The difference is an accumulated amount of more than $1 billion over 10 years, and it makes the difference between the department being able to afford all the planned equipment purchases designed to replace worn out weapons and not being able to afford those necessary replacements.

Lawrence-Peters: That this meeting of Council is hereby adjourned until the next Regular meeting of council to be held on September 6, 1979 at 7:00 p.m. or as called by the Reeve. Carried.

Samantha READS YOUR STARS

If you were born this week: You are practical, fairly ambitious and the need for financial security may be a motivating factor in your life. You are a lover of all forms of beauty and may have an aptitude for art. Your taste is excellent. You are sociable and fun-loving.

ARIES (3-21/4-19): Build bridges this week, Aries. Communications are accented, and I don't mean just chit-chat gossip sessions either. This time of the new moon is great for consulting with those important to your plans and for carrying on a meaningful dialog with your mate-lover. Do it!

TAURUS (4-20/5-20): New projects are on your horizon, Taurus, and you have decisions to make. You may find yourself vacillating between alternatives. Days also hold romance, a jolt and an intriguing encounter. Quite enough to keep you busy!

GEMINI (5-21/6-20): Where affairs of the heart are concerned, you are sometimes a gadabout butterfly, feeling that the more, the merrier. This week Cupid gifts you with one who is special enough to make you think about changing your ways, Gem. Agenda includes creativity, a cushion and a bit of coaxing.

MOONCHILD (6-21/7-22): Make calls to tie up loose ends early in week, Moonbaby. Then, home affairs keep you hopping, with visitors, redecoration and family activities. Latter days bring a surprise and a cornucopia of hugs, kisses and lovin'!

LEO (7-23/8-22): Make a final payment, Leo, and get a minor albatross off your neck. Then, listen to both sides before you make a judgment; fairness is important in this matter. Expect calls, errands and requests by the dozens. Don't talk yourself into hoarseness. Save some voice for later, when the lion roars!

VIRGO (8-23/9-22): Nine times out of ten you're a thoroughly thrifty li'l soul. But, when that tenth time rolls around (as it does periodically), you can be as profligate as anybody. No, Virgo, you can't have everything you see; but making choices is part of the fun. Of course it is!

LIBRA (9-23/10-23): Happy Birthday, dear Libra. You are one of the most genial and best tempered of all the zodiac. And would that some of the others embraced your peace-loving ways. Enjoy your special time and don't forget to make a wish as you blow out your candles. Hope it comes true!

SCORPIO (10-24/11-22): As usual, you're apt to welcome fall by doing a bit of self-examination, Scorp. Be honest with yourself and, if you are at all critical, go about it constructively. Secrets and hidden meanings run rampant, foxy one, with your more than capable help!

SAGITTARIUS (11-23/12-21): Social events and new acquaintances headline your week, Sag. Stimulating exchanges of ideas and information may lead to new goals. Latter days are tricky, tempting and timely and week ends with a snort.

CAPRICORN (12-22/1-19): Clear the decks, Cappy. Discard preconceived notions and be prepared to start fresh. You may be asked to spend time on what you consider to be trivia, and, therefore, unimportant. Do it anyway. Compromise and cooperation win the week. Later, go party; you deserve to!

AQUARIUS (1-20/2-19): An uncomfortable situation, likely involving an equally uncomfortable person, drifts out of your life, Aquari. Hooray! Then, with ingenuity, inspiration and a new approach, you can do no wrong. Week shuts with a bang.

PISCES (2-20/3-20): Partnership requires lots of give and take. Pisces. You are usually a rather subjective type; do your best to be objective for the next few weeks, at least. Days close with a flash of genius and a splash of love.

8 Algonquin Park Falcons Migrate

Eight peregrine falcons, introduced to Algonquin Park this summer, have reached maturity and following some inborn reaction to the changing season, have migrated southward for the winter months.

The induction of the majestic peregrine falcons to the Park, where they were raised in two traditional falcon nesting cliffs in the Park interior, was an experiment that paid off.

From the time they arrived, the young falcons were fed and watched over by a dedicated team of human foster parents until they could fly and capture prey on their own.

According to "The Ravin", official leaflet of the Ministry of Natural Resources, the eight young falcons very soon achieved the awesome power of flight for which the peregrines are famous and reach maturity without mishap.

Now they have left their northern nesting cliffs in the Park to travel south for the winter. If human good wishes were to be understood by these beautiful birds they would express the hope that, coming spring, the eight would return to their home in the Park.

FLIGHT WINNERS

HALIBURTON — Ken Rosenberg of Haliburton (centre), didn't win this year's Express Open but he did pick up the "A" Flight championship with a 72. "B" Flight winner this year was Jim Scheffee of Haliburton (right) with a 72 and the "C" Flight championship went to Royce Miller of Minden with a fine 71½.

Jack Snell leads Minden to 3-2 victory over Lindsay Juniors

MINDEN — In the opening game of the new fall Tri County fastball league play offs between Minden Merchants and Lindsay's Billings Mercury Juniors, Minden edged their visitors 3-2 with a final score of 3-2 victory. In the second game played the night last week in Lindsay, the Juniors won the tables winning decisively 6-2.

In the first game Jack Snell was the main force for Minden as he not only threw a one-hitter at the Jrs. but also knocked in all three runs for Minden.

The Merchants jumped in front 2-0 early in the contest on a pair of singles by Rick Hartwick and Kirk Hewitt and a double by Snell. The Minden boys got a little sloppy in the top of the 9th, with Snell having a no hitter going, his mates made two crucial errors and he then gave up his only hit of the game that resulted in Lindsay tying the game.

However in the bottom of the 7th inning Minden won the game on three straight singles by Barry Haw, Hartwick and Snell. Final score 3-2.

In Lindsay last Wednesday evening, the Minden squad just couldn't get untracked. They did open the scoring in the third when Hartwick, Hewitt and Sisson hit singles to go up 1-0. But, Lindsay put the game away in the bottom of the 4th with four runs and added two more in the 6th. Minden did load the bases in the 7th but could do no more than score a run to make the final count 6-2.

On Sports

BY JOHN DALTON

Name America's most popular sport (participant sport, that is). Tennis? Jogging? Baseball? Soccer? No. It's bowling.

About 65 million Americans bowl each year, according to the National Bowling Council. That's nearly one out of every three Americans.

A $5 billion yearly business, bowling actually began to boom in the early 1950s with the development of the first fully automated pinsetting system. Now there are more than 8,500 bowling centers across the United States.

Future growth seems likely, too. Those NBC figures show bowlers include about 20.3 million men, 9.7 million women — and 23.7 million youngsters.

"My father and mother started me when I was 10," explains Donna Adamek, 22, the 1978 Woman Bowler of the Year. She earned $31,000 last year as the leading money winner on the Women's Professional Bowlers Association tour.

Adamek of Monrovia, Calif., helped out last month at the 1979 All-America Youth Bowling Championships in Springfield, Va., (near Washington, D.C.).

She won the AAYBC girls' open title in 1975, sparking a pro career. In 1977, she averaged 207.66, the highest ever game figure on the women's tour.

"I enjoy bowling," says Adamek. "It's really worthwhile. I just try to improve my game. I'd like to keep bowling as long as possible."

Adamek says the popularity of the AAYBC, co-sponsored by the NBC and Coca-Cola USA, indicates bowling is going to maintain its popularity.

HALIBURTON — 58 golfers arrived at Pinestone Inn and Country Club on Sunday morning to take part in the 4th annual Highlands Express Open, 18-hole golf tournament, making it the most successful to date. The weather once again turned out beautiful and golf scores reflected the conditions of the day and the course itself.

Hugh Nichol of Haliburton is the Express Open's 1979 champion, shooting a 73. However, he was pressed over the final nine holes by Minden's Leigh Bull who set a tournament record three under par 33 on the back nine, to finish with a 76 and capture low net honours. This was the second win in four years for Hugh, who also holds the tournament record of 71 set in 1977. This now sets up a showdown next year between himself and two-time winner Ken Rosenberg (1976 and 1978).

Flight winners this year went to Ken Rosenberg with 71 in A Flight, Jim Scheffee with 72 in B flight and Royce Miller with 71½ in C Flight.

The second place winners were Bert MacDonald 72 in A Flight, Scotty LaRue 72 in B Flight and Art Dawson, 72½ in C Flight.

Third place finishers in each flight were Kim Hewitt 73, Dick Davies 72½ and Rick Hartwick 73.

Kirk Hewitt took the longest drive competition with a 300 yard drive on the first hole and Jerry Pillsworth captured top honours in the closest to the pin competition with a three foot drive on the par three third.

The most frustrated golfer trophy went to Garnet Brown with 125 and runner-up was John Harrison with 121.

The beautiful Walker's Distillers door prize was won by Keith McIntosh of Minden. Tournament organizers would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who donated prizes to the open and to the dining room staff for the delicious dinner.

A kind of training ground for future pros, the August 7-12 AAYBC culminated qualifying play as state and local levels involving more than 500,000 high school bowlers. Four winners from each of the 50 states reached the finals. Alina Won of Honolulu and Joe Loner of Albuquerque, N.M., won the open titles; and Cheryl Brown of Washington, D.C., and Randall Sato of Honolulu won the handicap (league average of less than 175) competitions.

"It's a game for everybody," claims Adamek, discussing why youngsters enjoy bowling. "Everyone bowls on a team. Nobody has to sit and watch."

In between tournaments, Adamek — who drives to WPBA events in a customized van — actually finds the time to take courses at California State University.

"I practice bowling for about two hours a day," she says. "That's like 10-to-25 games a day. You have to have the right attitude. It's all a matter of training and rhythm. I like the competition."

Bowling gained new stature in 1958 with the formation of the Professional Bowlers Association for the men's tour. Bowlers such as Don Carter, Dick Weber and Earl Anthony began to gain public attention. In 1978, Mark Roth of North Arlington, N.J., had the top PBA men's average: 219.8 in 25 tournaments.

— are starting to get their share of publicity in the previously male-dominated sport. But the women have had to live with a certain amount of old-fashioned prejudice. Reminds Adamek: "The lady bowlers aren't truck drivers any more."

A Living Folk Legend Comes To Bancroft

About twenty years ago a young Chatham girl named Sylvia Fricker became a professional musician. 1960 was the year a personal friend introduced her to Ian Tyson, who was becoming a star in the Toronto folk scene. Later that year they teamed up to be the classiest folk act Canada has ever heard — Ian and Sylvia.

After 15 years of performing in the shadow of husband Ian's own talents as a writer and artist and going through some drastic personal changes, Sylvia Tyson decided to build her solo career.

In the last five years Sylvia has sung from New York to California, from London to Louisiana and from the Horseshoe Tavern to Carnegie Hall. She has recorded 15 albums, and her songs have been recorded by Kitty Wells and Nana Mouskouri. Sylvia Tyson's credits also include five successful years of producing her own C.B.C.

radio programme, "Touch the Earth".

Concert Series II subscribers will have the pleasure of being entertained by this unique international star when the Algonquin Arts Council brings her to Bancroft on Saturday, October 27th.

You will greatly enjoy hearing live, here in our own community, the music and vocals of Sylvia Tyson and her band as they perform songs from her new album "Satin on Stone" and past hits from earlier albums such as "Women's World" and "Cool Wind from the North".

For subscription tickets to the Sylvia Tyson concert on October 27th plus the four other big shows — namely the Huggett Family, Shevchenko Musical Ensemble, the Maynooth Singers and Famous People Players — simply fill out the order form below and send it to the Algonquin Arts Council or phone June Colden at 332-3537.

Monmouth grant $40,000

Grants totalling $512,931 under the Ontario Home Renewal Program (OHRP), have been allocated to 15 municipalities, Housing Minister Claude Bennett announced last week.

OHRP provides per capita grants to Ontario municipalities to administer directly as loans to home owners or occupants to repair their houses to an acceptable municipal minimum standard.

The prime objective of the program is the correction of faulty structural and sanitary conditions and the upgrading of plumbing, heating, insulation and electrical systems of the owners home.

Loans up to $7,500 can be given to eligible owner occupants to bring their homes up to standards adopted by their municipality. A portion of the loan can be forgiven, depending upon the income of the recipient. Interest rates vary from zero to eight percent, again depending on income.

Municipalities and the grant amounts allocated this past week went to Monmouth for $40,000 and Limerick Township for $15,000.

New manual published on wildlife diseases

The third edition of a wildlife diseases manual of special interest to veterinarians, trappers, conservation officers and sportsmen has just been released, Natural Resources Minister James A. C. Auld announced today.

The first edition of the Manual of Common Parasites, Diseases and Anomalies of Wildlife in Ontario was published in 1964. It was expanded in 1969.

Five new topics have been added to be 1979 manual, Mr. Auld said. One is a bacterial disease affecting the lymph nodes, liver and spleens of beaver. It can be transmitted to trappers who may become infected during the skinning process.

The other newly added topics cover certain types of worms found in beaver and in black bear. Lice found on wildlife is also described.

"Twenty-three diseases and disease-like conditions are reported in the manual," the Minister said. "Each section discusses the prevalence, distribution and biology of the disease parasite with its potential effects on man, and how humans can avoid contracting the disease."

The manual is printed on waterproof paper and has a tough weather-resistant vinyl cover. A number of high-quality color photographs of the conditions discussed accompany the text together with a short reference list.

Copies of the Manual of Common Parasites, Diseases and Anomalies of Wildlife in Ontario are available at $5 each from the Ontario Government Bookstore, 880 Bay Street, Toronto M5S 1Z8 and the ministry's Public Service Centre, Room 1640, Whitney Block, Queen's Park, Toronto M7A 1W3. Cheques or money orders should be made payable to the Treasurer of Ontario.

Ask Alma

Dear Alma:
Yesterday, I bought a handbag for my wife. At a quick glance (I was on my lunch hour), I saw the word
"leather." After I presented the handbag to my birthday girl, I noticed that the label said, "This beautiful unleather handbag styled and created by (manufacturer's name)." Talk about fooling the public!
There oughta be a law. I really feel that I've been — TAK-EN

Dear Taken:

There is a law and I suggest that your gift be taken, too — right back to the store that sold it. 16 Coda Federal Regulation No. 247 permits a manufacturer to say only: "Non-leather, imitation leather, or simulated leather." "Un-leather" is deceiving. The misleading label should be sent to the Federal Trade Commission who will undoubtedly discuss the matter with the manufacturer.
This type of thing is really FTC's bag.

Dear Alma:

When we had the annual election of officers in our synagogue, the most incredible thing happened. With 146 people in the room, there was a tie — seventy three votes for each candidate. I think this is so unusual I want to ask you if you could figure out the odds on this ever occurring again. — Mathematically Inquisitive

Dear M.I.:

I couldn't even begin to figure the odds on this one so I sent your question off to Las Vegas (where else?). The answer from the "Town That Never Sleeps" was: "The odds against this happening were over 5000 to 1." Signed, Jimmy (The Greek) Snyder. Who else?

Dear Alma:

My mother is making me take piano lessons. I hate them. Everyone plays the piano. I want to learn the saxophone. What can I do to change her mind? — Chris

Dear Chris:

It's time to play "Let's Make A Deal" with Mom.
Offer to stick to your piano without complaint for a year
— if she would permit you then to take saxophone lessons. All the harmony and theory that you have been learning is applicable to any musical instrument.

Do you or a friend have a problem at home or at the office? Write to ASK ALMA,
P.O. Box 43, Closter, N.J.
07624 and watch for the answer in this column.
